Dear friends

RE-OPENING OF KING'S PARK CHURCH FOR PUBLIC WORSHIP

It is proposed to begin services in the church on Sunday 13th September at 11.00am.

At every stage of this process, we have aimed to make the safety and wellbeing of each individual our top priority. All our actions are based on the most up-to-date guidance provided by the Scottish Government and the Church of Scotland.

Our responsibilities to you:

- To ensure that everyone is able to participate in ongoing church life in a way that meets their needs and preferences during these difficult times
- To continue to follow guidelines as and when they are updated

Who should attend:

- You should consider carefully whether you should attend – see attached Assessment Tool for assistance.
- You must not attend if you are showing any symptoms associated with Covid-19.
- You must not attend if you are isolating or living with someone who is isolating or unwell.
- You must not attend if, having registered to attend worship, you subsequently show any symptoms associated with Covid-19.

Anyone wishing to attend must call or text Alan Pratt (07776 328914) by 9.00pm on the Thursday before the service, giving name, contact details and number in party attending. This process is to be followed each time you wish to attend worship.

What you must do when you attend:

- Wear a face covering from the moment you come through the gates
- Follow the guidance provided by the volunteers and pay attention to all signs displayed.
- Confirm your name and details when requested – for NHS Test and Protect purposes (see Privacy Notice attached).
- Refrain from shaking hands/hugging, and from singing inside the building
- Remain seated at the end of the service until instructed to leave

What worship will be like:

- Socially distanced seating in the sanctuary (unless attendees from same household)
- Remaining seated throughout the service (unless visiting toilets)
- Worship conducted solely by minister, with music by organist
- Hymn words and Scripture readings will be displayed on screen
- No tea/coffee after service

Please note - Online worship will continue via Facebook and YouTube.
